❖ EXPERIENCE RED BARN ❖

WELCOME

Welcome to Red Barn Arts and Crafts Festival, a premier outdoor event in its 46th year of celebrating arts, crafts, food, and music on the historic downtown square in Kirksville, Missouri. Our festival strives to attract talented and respected fine artists and crafters, and coincides with Truman State University's Family Weekend, which brings thousands of visitors from around the country.

JURIED EVENT

The Red Barn Arts and Crafts Festival is a juried event. The jury committee selects exhibitors based on standards of excellence in design and execution, with emphasis on originality and uniqueness. This committee has the right to make all final entry selections.

WHAT QUALIFIES

FINE ARTS: All work must be the original work of the accepted artist. Work must show originality and be made by hand. Items (ceramics, sculpture, glass, or jewelry) from molds or kits may be placed in the crafts category.

CRAFTS: All work must be designed and executed by the accepted crafter. Work should be handcrafted or enhanced creatively or artistically by the exhibitor. Items made by others or items purchased for resale may be removed at the discretion of the committee.

Commercially manufactured items will NOT be accepted.

AWARDS

Over $1,000 in awards are presented annually. Arts and crafts are judged on uniqueness, originality, and quality of work. Judges for each division are respected professionals in the arts community and are not KAA staff.

PARKING & SAFETY

Free public parking lots are located one block from the square. A designated handicapped drop-off and pick-up area is accessible to those in need. First aid is available at the information booth located at the corner of Franklin and Washington Streets. Kirksville City Police and Sheriff's Department are present during the event.

APPLICATIONS

Applications can be obtained online via our website: www.kirksvillearts.org or at the Kirksville Arts Association office, 215 S. Franklin.
